

Tony Tse

Strategic Advisor | Chainfir Capital

Toronto, Canada | tony@chainfir.com | Joined Chainfir 2024

Summary

Tony Tse is a Strategic Advisor to Chainfir Capital, bringing over two decades of senior leadership in global capital markets. His career spans senior roles at Goldman Sachs, the Toronto Stock Exchange (TSX), and Royal Bank of Canada (RBC), with deep expertise in investment banking, capital markets, and structured financial products.

Selected Experience

Goldman Sachs

Senior Vice President, Investment Banking | Toronto / Hong Kong

Led equity-capital-markets and structured-product transactions for North American and APAC fintech issuers.

Toronto Stock Exchange (TSX)

Director, Capital Markets & Listings

Advised fintech issuers on listing requirements, capital structure, and regulatory strategy.

Royal Bank of Canada (RBC)

Director, Structured Finance

Architected bespoke structured products and cross-border financing solutions for institutional clients.

Cross-Border Mandates

Family offices, sovereign wealth, and institutional investors

Two decades spanning North America and Asia-Pacific; deep relationships across regulatory and capital-markets ecosystems.

Areas of Expertise

- Capital Raising & Financing Strategy
- Financial Product Design & Structuring
- Fintech Growth Advisory
- Cross-Border M&A and IPO Advisory

At Chainfir

Helps portfolio founders design capital structures, connect with strategic and institutional investors, and navigate cross-border regulatory frameworks — pairing patient capital with the operator network needed for scalable growth.

Chainfir Capital | Growth investment firm headquartered in New Zealand, with offices in Hong Kong and Singapore.
Frontier-tech, AI, and Web3 patient capital. | www.chainfir.com